This warranty coverage only applies to those HCA intermodal chassis axles and HTA trailer axles that have been:

1. Properly assembled and installed by a trailer original equipment manufacturer (OEM)
2. Properly maintained (as described in all applicable Hendrickson publications)
3. Operated only within the United States, Canada, or Mexico (on-highway vans only)
4. Used in the recommended applications and within the rated capacities.

All non-recommended intermodal chassis axle or trailer axle applications must receive written approval from Hendrickson in order to be covered under the warranty. This warranty is subject to the conditions, exclusions and limitations listed in Hendrickson publication L583, Comprehensive Warranty Statement, available at www.hendrickson-intl.com. See publication L583 (US and Canada) and L826SP (Mexico) for additional information.

The Hendrickson suspension warranty coverage begins when the vehicle is put into service and ends when the time period specified in the above-referenced coverage table is reached.

No expressed warranty is given by Hendrickson with respect to its intermodal chassis axles, trailer axles and related components except as specifically set forth herein and in publication L583. Any warranty implied by law, including any warranty of merchantability or fitness for a particular purpose, is limited to the expressed warranty term provided in the above-referenced warranty-coverage table and/or publication L583.
