

Increase payload with HAULMAAX[®] on International[®] Trucks

Hendrickson's HAULMAAX[®] is a premium heavy-duty rear rubber suspension featuring a weight-efficient, durable design. Suspension weight is reduced for greater payloads through higher strength materials and advanced manufacturing methods. The unique spring system adjusts to the load, delivering the preferred combination of empty ride quality and loaded stability for demanding vocational applications. In addition, HAULMAAX provides outstanding traction and mobility while helping reduce maintenance for lower life cycle costs.
